Swifts at St. Mary's

Do you know that St Mary's tower is the summer home for a large colony of swifts? It's hard to miss them squeaking, swooping and soaring on a warm day. The ornithologists who look after the nesting boxes have reported 2024 to be an excellent year for breeding with about 60 chicks ringed, despite the unseasonal weather.

Look out for the birds before they set off soon on their return flight to Africa. Remarkably this long haul journey is the first time the chicks will take to the wing. No practice flapping and falling for them!

The Next Bishop of Ely

Please pray for the Crown Nominations Commission (CNC) who this Thursday and Friday are interviewing for the next Bishop of Ely.

Following this, an announcement is not expected until the autumn and it may be that the new Bishop will not take up their post until early next year.

To learn more about the process leading us to a new Bishop, please see here: Appointment of a new Diocesan Bishop - Diocese of Ely \(elydiocese.org\)
